Rev. Judy writes...

God needs you!

There are so many demands on our time today that sometimes it feels as if we are on a roundabout and can't get off it. Life is spiralling out of control. Time that we need to spend with our families, time that we need to have to deepen our relationships gets squeezed and squeezed. It often ends in tears as things break down and break up, and we end up in an exhausted heap.

This often comes about because we do not give priority to the important things in life, and we certainly don't give enough time to God. God is the source of life and love and strength and purpose but many of us have forgotten that he can be that life-giving person we need in our lives. We know we can do it on our own; we don't need anyone else....so why do things so often come crashing down?

I wonder when you last spent time in the church at Berrington surrounded by the peace of God, the stillness of God and the love of God? I wonder when you last asked God for his help in your life? Do you know that you are loved by Him, no matter who you are, no matter what you do, no matter what your past is? Do you know that God is waiting for you to come to him, warts and all, and find that self-esteem, that strength and that peace in your life which only He can give?

Go on...wander up to All Saints, Berrington and find out for yourself. It's a good stroll and you will not regret it!

God Bless
Rev. Judy

PRAYER CLOSET

The prayers of a righteous man availeth much..
James 5:16

Some ideas for things to pray for

Ask God to guide our new Government in making the right choices in what seems a very difficult road ahead and help them to be able to minister in a fair way. Let our community blossom and flourish.

Thank God that we can find a tranquil haven in Berrington to worship him in Spirit and Truth.

Ask God to show you how we can be peacemakers; and how you can encourage those who are in need of food, shelter, healing, and pray for those who have recently been bereaved or who find this time particularly difficult.

IF A CHILD LIVES WITH CRITICISM

- If children live with criticism, they learn to condemn
- If children live with hostility, they learn to fight
- If children live with fear, they learn to be apprehensive
- If children live with pity, they learn to feel sorry for themselves
- If children live with ridicule, they learn to be shy
- If children live with jealousy, they learn what envy is
- If children live with shame, they learn to feel guilty
- If children live with tolerance, they learn to be patient
- If children live with encouragement, they learn to be confident
- If children live with praise, they learn to appreciate
- If children live with approval, they learn to like themselves
- If children live with acceptance, they learn to find love in the world
- If children live with recognition, they learn to have a goal
- If children live with sharing, they learn to be generous
- If children live with honesty and fairness, they learn what truth and justice are
- If children live with security, they learn to have faith in themselves and in those around them
- If children live with friendliness, they learn that the world is a nice place in which to live
- If children live with serenity, they learn to have peace of mind.

What are your children living with?
